CLUB HISTORY

2nd Year - April 2006 to March 2007

The Continuing Story of Forresters Beach Probus Club

By Club Historian and Founding President John Ramsay

A six day trip to Yarrowonga began on April 30 and was enjoyed by 48 members. (Picture left).

July 2006 saw Frank Bunton commence Computer Classes and the new "Coast Creations Group" led by Mary Lyttleton (right) begin meeting at the Toowoomb Bay Surf Club. The Surf Club building later also became the venue for the new "Coast Songsters" led by John Powell and Janet Crlik. Also at the same meeting place were the "Coast Bookworms" led by Joan Bunton.

October was the first overseas tour – of Vietnam for 18 days. Bev and Murray Walsh led a party of 25.

December 5 brought a lunch at the Palm Beach RSL, thanks to the ferry, (no enthusiasm for a Swimming Group) with 97 lunching.

The Christmas Sausage Sizzle on December 20 attracted 101. Santa (Eric Grace) also

2007

An article on the Club's success was printed in the Probus Magazine of February/March 2007 and invited readers to inspect the Club Web Site.

At the AGM for 2007 Geoff Barwick (left) was elected to succeed Murray Walsh as President.

The Management Committee elected for the 2007-2008 year comprised:
